

Annual Data for 2024 - 2025

561 Community Standards incidents were reported, involving 1159 individual parties

Resolutions

221 Community Standards Hearings

408 Educational Letters

89 Educational Meetings

Educational Sanctions

Educational Sanctions are educational or reflective assignments given to a student who violated a policy. Below are the most common types of educational sanctions and the percentage of students that received them.

52.1% Reflective Assignments

40.1% Alcohol, Cannabis, and Other Drugs Education/Support

7.8% Community Engagement

Most Frequently Violated Policies

01 Alcohol

02 Institutional Housing Policies - Noise Violations

03 Controlled Substances/Drugs (cannabis/marijuana)

04 Failure to Comply

Not all students who are documented have a Community Standards Hearing.

Last year, 497 students had either an informal educational meeting with a staff member or received an educational letter.

Disciplinary Sanctions

Disciplinary Sanctions are statuses that describe the disciplinary standing of a student.

Below are the types of statuses and the percentage of students that received them.

