

Berklee On-Campus vs. Off-Campus Housing Cost Comparison

Trying to decide between living on or off campus? Use this worksheet to compare on-campus to off-campus living costs. On-campus costs are based on the 2020–2021 rate of $9,320 (room and board plus a full meal plan) divided by four months. Once you've identified two off-campus options that fit what you're looking for, fill in the second and third columns to help you compare costs.

	On-Campus Housing	Off-Campus Option A	Off-Campus Option B
Rent (monthly)	$2,330
Food (monthly)	Included
Water (monthly)	Included
Utilities (monthly)	Included
Cable TV (monthly)	N/A
Internet (monthly)	Included
Pet fee (if applicable)	N/A
Security deposit	N/A
Parking (if applicable)	N/A
Application fee (one-time cost)	N/A
Other:	N/A
Other:	N/A
Total:	$2,330

What's Next?

- Did you decide that on-campus housing is a better fit for you? If so, check out our Housing Application and Rates page for information on application deadlines and housing costs.
- Did you decide that off-campus housing is a better fit for you? Check out our Living Off-Campus page to continue your off-campus housing search. On our website, you can:
  - Search local listings in your price range
  - Learn about leases and what you need to know before signing one
  - Read tips for how to prepare for your move in day
  - Explore the resources available to you as an off-campus student